Thorium mod classes

Thorium mod classes guide. Thorium mod all classes.

The Thorium Mod greatly expands the number of options available for the four Vanilla classes Melee, Ranged, Magic and Evocation. On top of that, the mod adds a completely renewed Thrower class with unique mechanics to the Thorium Mod, as well as two completely new classes for the player: Healer and Bard. As with vanilla, the versatility, abilities and power of each class increase as you progress through the game. This, in addition to the existing choices from vanilla, means it can be overwhelming for a first time player to decide what to use. This guide will provide potential weapons, armor, accessories and other options for each class at multiple points of the game. Please note that this guide only applies to thorium equipment. For a list of terrarium vanilla equipment, please refer to this guide. Pre-Bosse[] If you wish, use the bombs to gain immediate access to Shadow Orbs/Crimson Hearts and Meteors. Take on the Goblin Army or explore the jungle if you want to face many dangers. The bosses of this section are Grand Thunder Bird, King Slime and Eye of Cthulhu. Pre-Skeleton[] This section assumes that the player has visited all appropriate biomes and defeated all previous bosses and invasions before the Wall of Flesh. Pre-Mechanical Bosses[] This section assumes that the player has visited all appropriate biomes and defeated all previous bosses and invasions before Plantera. Pre-Golem[] This section That the player visited all the appropriate biomi and defeated all the bosses and previous invasions before Golem. Pre-celestial events [] pre-celesti [] The section assumes that the player has visited all appropriate biomes, and defeated all previous bosses and invasions before the Celestial Pillars. Pre-Primordials[] This section assumes that the player has visited all appropriate biomes and defeated all previous bosses and invasions before The Primordials. Endgame[] This section assumes that the player has visited all appropriate biomes, and defeated all bosses and invasions provided by Vanilla and Thorium Mod. Terraria > Genel Tartışmalar > Konu Detayları thorium mod "classes" we will only have the thorium mod during the lessons too, why did I choose thorium? because it adds 2 completely new classes! yoyo is with apples because there is no "damage of y Yoyo and artillerymen and archery are both at a distance, now this is out My class will be the healer: as the name suggests, heals allies and then receives some attacks, it's also the bard in the mod that uses music to kill allies in an AoE and damage enemies. the rest Im not a woo man im a weeb btw Not: Bu SADECE spam, reklam ve sorunlu (taciz, kavga ya da terbiyesizlik içeren) gönderileri raporlamak için kullanılır. View Now Preview All Education website's Get more: Education How is your experience in the final game (when armor and equipment gets very specialized)? How does it feel to fight mafias/fights with bosses, compared to doing it with vanilla lessons? Is it more difficult or more interesting? I understand that at the end of the Thrower game you get Melee's level of defense and Bard/Healer's level of Ranger. But is it possible to maintain the secondary class at the end of the game? Because I've been reading about healers, and I think it might be boring, staying out of trouble and scaring the healers. So I want to do my first class run in this game for a little challenge. Using mdo Thorium and Calamity I liked what I've already played of these mod. I can't decide what to choose and I was wondering if anyone here had any suggestions for a fun first class to try with these two active mod. Hopefully one that is not too demanding as I am not yet too good with bosses. Page 2 30 comments comments comments comments comments comments
